Secretary: I read purpose and reviewed March minutes

Treasurer: Kim Wesolek reported Cedar Point money due tomorrow!! Craft show has 18 tables reserved, and since we did not participate in WGI, we received $200.00 back, and will start next season with $350.00 balance. WOO-HOO!! She will not be coming back, and Kim Dreslinski is interested in the position.

Vice President: Diane Boyer will not be returning next year and she wants us to know we were a fun group to be with!

President: Mary Matthews reported Miss Earls resigned April 1, 2010, as did Nicole Christy. The job posting will be internal first, then we will pursue outside interests. Mr Snyder has some people in mind.

Director of Bands: Chris Snyder reported that the former captain of the Cavaliers, Tommy Allen is interested and a woman from PSU Blue Band. Concert band is next Wednesday at Pine Richland High School, dress rehearsal night before is at DLHS. School is a little slow in the process of ordering new uniforms, he will keep reminding them! We have full reign of football field for summer camp! He will be recruiting the 8th grade students again this year, due our small numbers. Fine Arts Night is May 19.

Old Business: Car flags – only 26 left, thank God! Spring bulbs – profit was $415.00 among 10 sellers. Winterguard fees – all have been paid. Cleantown carwash fundraiser – we pick the day, our kids get T-shirts and a pizza lunch, work for approximately 6 hours and get 20% profit of all cars that come in that day. We need around 12 kids, and a couple adults. Mary Matthews motioned, Janette Campbell seconded, we will try to schedule a day.

New Business: Officers – changes are: treasurer * Kim Dreslinski, vice president * Betsy Bialosky, all others remain unchanged. Hoagies – had big order this time! Flea Market – Diane Boyer wants items dropped off Friday 4/16/2010 4-6pm at St Victors. Hours are 9-5 on Saturday, if helping to set up, please come in between 8-8:30, if helping to break down, we will begin at 5pm till done. We will have a bake sale booth, and hopefully sell some of those darn flags too! Lottery tickets – sale has been cancelled. Spring concert – dress rehearsal evening before at DLHS. Band Banquet – June 6, 2010 with invite to be coming soon. Band Picnic – June 18, 2010, same as last year will all attending to bring a dish to share. Band Camp – dates to be confirmed but we begin evening sessions 7/26 – 7/30, and start full day 8/2 thru 8/18, with Kennywood on 8/19.

Adjourned: 8:05pm
